Podcast Studio Build

The Vision:

To build a podcast studio in our community arts venue in Maidstone town centre.

Offering creative technical skills development opportunities to local people where they can learn podcasting production techniques and develop their own podcasts from initial ideas right through to recording, editing and distribution.

We have partnered with local community radio station Maidstone Radio FAWall, who are offering us a platform to air our own Harmony podcast, showcasing the great work that we do in the community and giving our young people the opportunity to participate in the running of a regular real world podcast accessible to the local community.

The Value:

Building real world technical podcast production skills and empowering young creatives to pursue meaningful careers in the creative sector.

Bringing together our community to celebrate the great things that we are doing locally and to spread awareness of local causes in need of community support.

Supporting local community radio with regular content to engage and inspire their listeners.
